An Ethical Investment? Who Decides?

What actually makes an ethical investment ethical? Who makes the decisions? And can ethical investment really make a difference, or is it just a cynical PR exercise in 'whitewashing' or 'greenwashing?' Christian charity JustShare is tackling these questions head on in its next debate, Ethical Investment: What's Behind It? The discussion, which takes place as part of National Investment Week, will feature the following city experts: -

- Seb Beloe, Head of Socially Responsible Investment, Henderson Global Investors
- Giles Chitty, Partner, Holden & Partners
- Stephen Hine, Head of International Relations, The Ethical Investment Research Service
- David Harris, Responsible Investment Manager, FTSE4Good.

The debate is sponsored by CCLA, who provide specialist investment management for charities, faith organisations and local authorities. It will be held from 1.05 – 1.55pm on Tuesday 20th May, at the CCLA offices, 7th Floor, 80 Cheapside, London EC2V 6DZ. For further details email justshare@stmarylebow.org.uk or visit www.justshare.org.uk

JustShare is a coalition of churches and other development agencies seeking to engage with the City of London on issues of global and economic injustice. JustShare holds regular debates, training seminars and other events to promote justice for the poorest in the world and a just share of the world's resources for all.
